Joseph Olpin's Mother Killed In Accident At Pleasant Grove

Funeral services for Mrs. Inez Olpin, 76, of Pleasant Grove, mother of Joseph Olpin of this city, who was killed in a pedestrian-truck accident Sunday, were conducted Thursday at 2 p. m. in the Pleasant Grove ward chapel with Ertman Christensen of the ward bishopric presiding.

Mrs. Olpin died immediately after the accident, which occurred as she was walking across the street in Pleasant Grove. Mrs. Olpin was crossing the street from the home of her son, Lewis Olpin, to the home of a daughter, Mrs. Donna O. Ash, when she was struck by the truck driven by John Cissi of Salt Lake City.

She was born May 30, 1868 in Pleasant Grove, a daughter of Lewis and Mary Jane Waite Robinson. She was married to Edwin D. Olpin on November 27, 1889, in the Manti Temple. He died 18 years ago. She was an active member in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She helped her husband run the mortuary business in Pleasant Grove.

She is survived by eight sons and daughters.
